Game Summary:

kicking off the start of the new season saw the teacher captain of First Responders defeat his former protégé student captain's team Cam-A-Lot. Fittingly, with all the off-season talk surrounding the debut of the next appointed "Chosen One", rookie Cam Ward didn't disappoint, scoring the first goal of the new season, while also setting up a goal.

However, overshadowing that debut was the so-called "coming for records man" Mike O'Neill delivering in his first game played, by scoring a hat-trick that had his team jumping out to a three goal lead, while holding off a furious comeback to get the win.

As always, Dominic Defrancisco played his usual all-around solid two-way game while setting up his team's last two goals.

Derrick Power ignited his team's late comeback surge with his first goal of the season.

Goalie Dave Giusti kicked off his season-long quest to beat his Blind Goalie Challenge with a solid two period performance and win, even with a minor hiccup late in the game.
