Tommy Guns Poo Bears

Game Summary:

In a classic game between two evenly matched offense heavyweight teams, Tommy Guns scored a key insurance goal early in the third period, and held on for the win.

Poo Bears was competitive the entire game right down to the buzzer and will need their second line producing to add some depth in scoring. Even still, once they round their game in shape, they will be a dangerous team to play against.

Patrick Spencer led the way for his team, scoring a hat trick, picking his spots from multiple angles.

Pedro Fontes had his game going on offense, scoring 2-goals.

Rob Sheridan was his usual impact player running his team's offense, scoring a goal and setting up his teammates for multiple scoring chances while assisting on a goal. By the looks of Rob's play, his movement has dramatically improved from last season's nagging lower body injury that hampered his effectiveness.

Mike Duggan does what he does best, scoring his team's first goal of the game.
