Game Summary:

Tommy Guns continues to roll as they extend their undefeated winning strwak to four games with their third straight blowout win. The Revolution see a close game blowup in the second period, giving up four unanswered goals with some shaky goaltending and lack of offense, to see their one game winning streak come to a crashing end.

Tommy Gallagher continues his torrid start to the season, scoring a hat trick, extending his multi-point scoring streak to three games. Mike Duggan in the shadows of his linemates scoring the first three games, breaks out offensively with his own hat trick and adds 2-assists, to factor in on five of the seven goals his team scored.

Tony Fosco finally breaks out of the shadows of his Munchkin linemates, scoring 1-goal while setting up three others.

John Mastrocola finally breaks out of having to play defense jail, moves up front, and sets up two goals, turning this game into a rout.

Goalie A J Larabee posts his second consecutive shutout, stopping all 18 shots he faces.
