Game Summary:

Poo Bears gets to 500 for the season as thier offense paces the attack, earning them a hard fought victory.

Cam-A-Lot again is missing their top player on offense, and it shows, as they get behind early in this game by two goals, followed by giving up two unanswered goals in the second period, to see their losing streak extend to three games.

Dave Costa leads the way for his team's offense, from defense, scoring the game's first goal, while assisting on two other goals.

Pedro Fontes gets his offense going this game, scoring 2-goals and sparking his teams momentum, to break open a closely played game.

Rob Sheridan returns to action after a two game hiatus, and is the playmaker this game, scoring his own highlight reel backhand nasty goal in the second period, while also setting up another goal.

Naz expands his shutdown defensive game by getting into the offense, setting up two goals.

Bob Snyder stands out for his team, scoring 1-goal and assisting on another.
