Game Summary:

In a big game that will go a long way in determining 1st and 2nd place in the standings, Black Magic storms back from an early two goal deficit and pulls away in the third period.
Marooned plays shorthanded on defense which takes its toll in the third period, as they see their five game winning streak halted.
Patrick Spencer has a big impact in this game, scoring 1-goal and adding 2-assists, contributing in all three periods.
Mike Duggan is the offense for his team, factoring in on every goal they score with 2-goals and 1-assist.
Pedro Fontes is the playmaker when it matters in his team's last three goals scored, with 1-goal and 2-assists.
Doug Sedille has a huge impact after shifting from defense to forward, scoring his first goal of the season (game winner) and adding 1-assist.
Ray Nickerson scores 1-goal and adds 1-assist.
Nick Romano scores a momentum swinging goal two minutes after the opposition scores to take the lead in the second period, with a tip in front.
