GAME SUMMARY:

Leafpeepers break a two game losing streak with a thrilling back-and-forth high scoring win, as they comeback twice to win early in OT.

Canadian Geese sees their two game winning streak halted, although they earn a valuable point in the standings.

This game was a classic game of each team's star players coming to play and going head to head against each other, matching each other goal for goal.

Designated the same as Mike Duggan's "fill in until further notice" playing status, Cam Long has been added to the Leafpeepers and made an instant impact, scoring 4-goals in his debut, including the game winner in OT. Cam showed off his impressive speed as he went end to end and outran the defense down the left wing, giving his new team a thrilling win.

Ben Tomsyck remains hot and just may be the league's hottest scorer and top sniper, scoring a ht trick, while adding 1-assist, as he extended his multi-point game to three straight. In his first three games played, Ben has put up 8-goals, 3-assists for 11 points.

Gino Tammaro continues to play the playmaker role for his team as he put up his second straight 1-goal and 3-assists performance.

Mike Luise had a breakout game, 3-assists.

Ray Dow scores his first goal of the season on a rocket shot from the point.
