Game Summary:

Royal Family is now a different team from earlier in the season, as they make a strong playoff push in the standings, trying to get out of the cellar, winning two of their last three games.
White Lies loses their second game in a row, as they miss an opportunity to keep their place in the standings dropping down to 5th place.
John Hines scores the game winner on a power play.
Tom Gallagher scores his first goal since coming back to play that ties the game early in the third period.
Jose Silva gets his team started this game, scoring nine seconds into the game, for their only goal.
Both goalies Mike Viera and Sean Roach play solid and keep their teams in this game.
