In a shootout game where the goaltending was not good, Gold Miners outscored their opponent, reaching double figures, to stop their one game losing streak.

Top Secret, plays short-handed, missing 6 players, which catches up to the players on the rink, losing their second straight game (the lack of players ALL SEASON LONG has directly impacted this team).

Mauro Colucciello breaks out offensively, scoring 3-goals and adding 1-assist to put an end to his five game goal scoring drought.

Dominic Defranisco for once doesn't have to carry this team on his back offensively and adds 2-goals and 1-assist.

Matt Farrell does all he can do on offense, scoring 2-goals and adding 2-assists, but its not enough due to the goaltending.

Mike Luise gets into the scoring with 2-goals.

Doug Sedille quietly sets up 3-goals.

The Shawn factor stands out for Gold Miners as Shawn Mulcahy and Shawn Wyatt each score their first goals of the season.
