Game Summary:

Goombahs comeback after being down by two goals very early in this game, showing character and composure, to start another winning streak. They had their hands full the entire game.

Captain's Mutiny plays their best game all season, playing hard the entire game with their running game going, losing a game they could have won. Lessons learned!

Angelo De Luca, the captain leads by example during their comeback, scoring 2-goals.

Gino Tammaro is the playmaker setting up two goals to tie the game, extending his points streak to ten straight games.

Jason Carrien scores a big go ahead goal late in the second period.

Leo Trombley scores early in the first period and is his team's best player on offense. Was this the start of Leo's breakout of the season?

Matty Iannello shifts to defense and sets up two goals.

Derek Donegan continues to impress in his rookie season, scoring 1-goal and assisting on another.

Overlooked in this game is even though he gave up 3-goals, if goalie Sean Roach did not make some timely point blank saves throughout this game, his team definitely would have lost. He gave them a chance.
