Game Summary:

The Revolution wins a well played game between two evenly matched (yet shorthanded) teams, winning their second game in their last three played. This win may have turned around their season as they start to come together as a team.

Poo Bears sees their one game winning streak come to an end as they give up a late goal.

Manny Nunes returns to form showcasing his playmaking skills and scoring timely goals in leading his team's offense with a hat trick, scoring the game winner.

J R Liwanag is noticeable all game with his running game and forechecking pressuring the defense that pays off scoring 1-goal in a key second period that shifts the momentum over to his team.

Pedro Fontes doubles up his game efforts with his second 2-goal game as he is the offense for his team.

Rob Sheridan scores a long range goal in the first period from the blue line that takes a wicked drop past the suprised goalie, while adding an assist and playing his usual playmaking game.

Dave Costa leads all defenseman this game setting up three goals while quarterbacking his team's defense.

The Revolution get contributions from their second line that plays a big part in their win as Ron Aquino and Mike Luise each set up two goals.

Welcome back to the Over-30 league Jason Carrien who makes his season debut playiing for the Revolution.
