Game Summary:

First Responders breaks a three game losing streak with an explosive offense outburst, scoring five unanswered goals after going down early by two goals.

Tommy Guns is missing their best player on offense and defense but can't match the scoring of their opponent as they are handed their first loss this season.

Mike O'Neill doesnt come for records but does break out on offense, scoring 2-goals and adding 1-assist to break this game open.

John Kelleher plays a big unnoticed part in this game in the first period, as his 1-goal and 1-assist brings his team back into this game.

Elder Lopes leads all defensemen with 3-assists and leads the way as quarterback for his team's defense.

Joe Carlton scores a big insurance goal in the third period jumping up into the offense, while setting up another goal.

Nick Doherty makes his season debut for First Responders, scoring 1-goal while adding 1-assist.

Mike Duggan extends his goal scoring streak to start the season to five games.

Patrick Spencer extends his point streak to five games.

After a shaky start to the game, goalie Dave Giusti stops all 17 shots faced in the second and third periods to help his team get back into this game.
