Capo-Zero		The Revolution

The Revolution come back from an early two goal deficit to win their second straight game and third of their last four played. Capo-Zero sees their four game undefeated streak come to an end, as their offense goes dormant in the second and third periods. Manny Nunes is the playmaker again for his team, as he sets up all three of his team's goals in this game, as he has upped his scoring with 6-points in the last two games. Fill-in to permanent roster player Jason Carrien settles in during his second game played with his new team, making his presence felt when it matters late in the game setting up 2-goals. Rich Pelletier breaks a two game scoring drought as he scores the big game winning goal. Steve Silveira scores his first goal of the season. George Medeiros extends his goal scoring streak to four games. Both goalies Scott Rosato and Dale McIsaac are solid this game, both making some timely saves, to keep their teams in this game.
