Game Summary:

In a game hyped up as a battle between two heavyweights, it ended up being a one-sided domination by Poo Bears. Starting right from the opening faceoff and continuing all game, Poo Bears wanted it more, everyone running hard all game, quicker onto the ball and scoring timely goals to get back to their winning ways.

Tommy Guns was not the same team as the first four games of the season with three blowout wins, as they did not match the intensity of their opponent and couldn't generate a consistent up tempo attack. They were always one step behind in this game.

Pedro Fontes is on fire, as he sparked his team's offense (again), scoring 2-goals while adding 1-assist. It was his third consecutive game of scoring 2-goals.

Welcome back officially Marty Makarewicz to the Over-30 league, playing his best game all season, scoring his first goal of the season while setting up a key early goal.

Although quiet on the game sheet with 1-goal and 1-assist, Rob Sheridan had a big game as the playmaker controlling this game for his team. Once again when he scores, Todd Bryson makes them count, as he scored his second goal of the season that turned into another game winning goal, with a big insurance goal in the first period that broke this game open.
