Game Summary:

Poo Bears are on fire, winning their third straight game to jump into second place in the standings. Secondary scoring has had a big impact during this winning streak as they have won their last two games without their best player on offense. This team has a lot of depth and continues to show production from multiple players.

Capo-Zero comes out flat and never generates any consistent offense as they struggle to get past that defensive wall of thier opponent.

Pedro Fontes continues to step up on offense, scoring a hat trick and extending his point streak to five games, while scoring 9-goals during this streak. Pedro has now moved up to challenge for that first spot in the leading scorer's race.

Marty Makarewicz also continues to look rejuvenated on the rink and stays hot, scoring 1-goal and adding 2-assists, making a big jump up the leading scorer's race.

Dave Costa sets up two goals while playing shutdown defense, to extend his lead atop the defenseman scoring race.

Goalie Sean Roach has an easy day at the office, not really tested during the game, stopping 25 out of 26 shots faced.
