The Revolution

Tommy Guns

Game Summary:

After getting back to their winning ways last game, Tommy Guns is officially back as they showed their team character and fought back from a three goal deficit. Scoring the last six goals to win their second game in a row with a major comeback victory and plenty of offense.

Missing five of their forwards and needing fill in players, the lack of depth finally caught up to The Revolution at the start of the third period as they didn't have the legs to keep up with their opponent. Overall, this team has the talent and depth to compete with any team.

Mike Duggan finally took over a game for his team rather than act as the playmaker setting up goals by scoring a hat trick. Mike's overall play in this game as a goal scorer and leader were evident, as he scored all of his goals in the third period to bring team completely back.

Manny Nunes has emerged as the leader for his team's success on offense and continues to make an impact in his games, as he scored 2-goals while adding 1-assist.

Tom Gallagher continues to be the engine that drives his team's explosive offense, scoring 1-goal while adding 2-assists. As Tom goes, so does his team's offense.

Patrick Spencer gets into the action on offense, scoring his first goal after a five game drought, and adds 2-assists.

Jason Carrien is starting to find his overall game, but more importantly his offense, as he sets up all three of his team's goals.

Paul Firicano has his second multi-point game as he plays a role in sparking his team's major comeback by setting up two goals.
