Poo Bears

Cam-A-Lot

Game Summary:

Team Timeout:

Poo Bears wins their fourth game in a row in impressive fashion, as they storm back from a two period two goal deficit, scoring five consecutive goals in the third period to pull away for an impressive win.

Cam-A-Lot atones for their worst embarrassing loss of the season, to jump out to a two goal lead, keeping their opponent in check, but run out of gas as they can't match the offense of their opponent in the third period. For this team to turn their season around, they will need everyone present, commit to playing as a team and team defense, and start running again.

Pedro Fontes has his second consecutive game of scoring a hat trick to lead his team's scoring as he takes over (again) in the third period, establishing himself as his team's top scorer and threat on offense.

Rob Sheridan returns from a two game absence to re-establish himself as his team's playmaker driving his team's offense, by scoring 1-goal and adding 2-assists, to help his team with an impressive comeback victory.

Dave Costa continues to lead all defensemen in scoring, as he quarterbacks the defense, while jumping into the offense with 1-goal and 1-assist.

Tony Medeiros extends his goal scoring streak to two games.
