Capo-Zero

First Responders

Game Summary:

First Responders, after getting shutout their last game, flip the script on their opponent, completely dominating their game with an aggressive attack, posting a shutout as they score six goals and coast to a win.

Capo-Zero sees their offense go dormant in a double-header weekend of games and freefall down the standings into third place, as they once again can't generate any offense to be competitive in their games, scoring one goal in two games played.

Nick Doherty finally comes alive on offense since joining the team while contributing very little on offense, breaks out in a big way, scoring 1-goal while setting up three others, factoring in on four of his team's six goals scored. Welcome to the Over-30 league Nick!

Dominic DeFrancisco bookends goals in this game, scoring the game's first and last goals.

Elder(berry) Lopes continues to quarterback his team's defense while also breaking a three game scoring drought by scoring 1-goal and adding 1-assist.

Tony Bono scores his first goal of the season to break open a close game, while also getting noticed on offense for his team.

Goalie Dave Giusti has a bounce back game posting his first shutout of the season which goes a long way in helping his Pink Shirt Challenge.
