GAME SUMMARY:

Chickenhawks unlock the "Wing-Ah's secret" as they hand their opponent their first loss of the season with a total team effort and scoring outburst early in the game, extending their winning streak to three games. The Chickenhawks FINALLY have a full roster in attendance and it shows, as they dominate most of this game with a swarming team offense and defensive effort. Their balanced two-line attack on offense proves to be the difference.

Wing-Ah's suffers their first loss of the season as their nine game undefeated streak comes to an end after falling behind early in this game by two goals, and can't mount thier typical in game adjustment offensive flurry to take control of the game. We also witnessed some adversity impacting this team in this game which they did not handle well.

Mike O'Neil steps up big time to lead the way for his team, scoring a hat trick and taking control and momentum of this game early as he breaks a two-game scoreless drought.

Kevin Johnson plays the role of the playmaker for his team, setting up four goals, including the first three goals scored for this team.

Patrick Spencer has a momentum shifting role in this game, setting up two goals to spark a second momentum shift in this game to help his team break open this game.

Lee Nogler leads his team on offense with 2-goals and 1-assist, extending his multi-scoring streak to six games.

Brian Pollinger extends his multi-point scoring streak to two games with 1-goal and 1-assist.
