GAME SUMMARY:

The Lone Rangers extend their winning streak to two games with a dominant shutout of their opponent, as they finally get some secondary balanced scoring and have their running game going.

The Canadian Geese have zero pushback, no offense and goal scoring, and absolutely no running game. It's one thing to be missing your best player on offense; its another thing to be unable to generate any offense or goal scoring in his absence.

Tony Medeiros channes his past Portuguese Power game by scoring 2-goals and adding 1-assist to lead his team on offense, as he extends his multi-point scoring streak to two games (scoring 3-goals and 3-assists in that timespan).

Steve Iacoviello has a breakout game on offense for his team, scoring his first goal of the season while setting up 2-goals, while playig some shutdown defense.

Paul Firicano is looking more and more like his team's defensive quarterback controlling his defensive zone, as he too also scores his first goal of the season while setting up two goals.

In anorther example of scoring one's first goal of the season being contagious, Scott Daniluik also scores his first goal while setting up another goal.

New addition to the roster Marty Makarewicz continues to made a difference and provide an huge spark with his all-around game, as he sets up two goals to extend his multi-point scoring streak to two games.

Goalie Scott Rosato has an easy time of it in posting his second shutut of the season, stopping all 18 shits faced.
