GAME SUMMARY:

Leafpeepers extend their winning streak to two games by dominating their game with their running game and timely scoring.

Canadian Geese are officially in freefall. How quickly they have fallen in their last three games (all losses) scoring a measly 1-goal in those losses, given up 12 goals against, not everyone buying into the running game, and offering no serious pushback in offense. Missing your top two players on offense and defense does not help either.

Pedro Fontes leads the way for his team with an impact performance, scoring 2-goals and adding 1-assist, as his offense breaks this game open into a route early in the second period.

Captain Tom Gallagher is the playmaker this game, factoring in on every goal his team scores with five assists. Another example of a captain leading by example, making those around him better players.

Fill in goalie Jeremy Kelly stops all 22 shots faced for the shutout.
