GAME SUMMARY:

The Lone Rangers are making a move in the standings as they extended their winning streak to three games, posting back-to-back shutouts in the process. This team is on a roll and are now a serious contender, as players are showing up ready to play, have bought in, are running the entire game, and are receiving secondary scoring across their roster. The addition of Marty Makarewicz to their roster has paid benefits immediately and sparked a renewed focus for this team.

It was not surprising that the Chickenhawks could not maintain the momentum in back-to-back games after their stunning dominant win over the previously undefeated first place team that ended their nine game streak. Missing their top scorer and top defenseman had an impact, as they could not match the intensity and scoring of their opponent.

Marty Makarewicz had another impact game (his third straight multi-point game) as he scored 2-goals and added 1-assist in factoring in on three of his teams four goals scored.

Rob Sheridan continues to be the leader of this team, as he played the role of playmaker this game with three assists while continuing his rink-wide defensive coverage.

Kyle McCabe continues to have a breakout season, scoring 1-goal and adding 1-assist. Kyle's production compares him to when Papa Smurf was paired with Matty "The Great One" Iannello and had his own breakout season as a dangerous scoring threat every game.

Goalie Scott Rosato becomes the first goalie in the league to post three shutouts with back-to-back shutouts, stopping all 20 shots he faced.
