GAME SUMMARY:

Wing-Ah's get back to their winning ways as they grind out a win after taking this game over late in the second period with another in game offensive scoring surge that the opponent cannot match up against. The Wing-Ah's didn't let their first loss of the season linger as they quickly got back to work with their usual attacking style.

The Brew'ins are missing their top two players on offense while having some issues neutralizing the speed of their opponent, while also having some breakdowns in their team defense and coverage that seals their fate.

Lee Nogler uses his experience to lead his team, as he factors in on every goal his team scores, with 2-goals and 3-assists. Lee shows the way in carrying his team quickly back to their winning ways, and get back to business.

Tony Mastrocola adds some secondary scoring to the effort with 1-goal and 1-assist. The Munchkin goes to the dirty areas and stands tall.

Jamie Kehoe quarterbacks his team's defensive zone play while jumping up into the offense with 1-goal and 1-assist.

Jon Brown and Todd Bryson scores their teams goals.

Goalie Dale McIsaac bounces back with another solid performance in net, stopping 20 out of 22 shots faced, keeping this game close halfway through the game until his team's breaks this game open late in the second period scoring three goals.
