Game Summary:

Team Timeout:

Poo Bears continue to make their run as the league's hottest team, and the team to beat, winning their fifth straight game to move into sole possession of first place. How hot are the Poo Bears? For their second rotation of games on the schedule, they left no doubt in sweeping all games against each of the other teams.

The Revolution lose their second game in a row, sit in fifth place, but with a full team present, this team has gotten very stingy on defense in allowing goals against, and will continue to be a tough opponent.

Marty Makarewicz continues to amaze with his overall play and scoring production this season. We did not see this coming, but Marty looks healthy and his confidence continues to grow each game as a difference maker, as he scored both goals for his team, including the game winner in OT. In his last four games played, he has 6-goals and 3-assists.

Now settled in with his team, it only took him six games, but Jason Carrien finally scored his first goal of the season.

We had another head-to-head goalie matchup showcasing how good the goalies can be in this league when given team support, as Sean Roach matched Scott Rosato save for save all game, as Sean stopped 25 out of 26 shots faced, while Scott stopped 28 out of 30 shots faced. Well done both of them!
