Capo-Zero

Cam-A-Lot

Game Summary:

Cam-A-Lot snaps a two game losing streak in a confidence building game trying to build some momentum during the stretch run with a complete team game and stand-out goaltending. We are still left wondering just how good would this team be if their top player on offense did not go on IR.

Capo-Zero, playing consistent all of this season in winning a lot of close games, is now officially in freefall. They have now lost three straight games, mainly due to a lack of offense and scoring, as their star players are not producing goals!

Jose Silva steps up as the leader on offense and playmaker, as he scores a goal while also setting up a big insurance goal to seal the win.

Derek Donegan plays one of his better games this season, making a difference on both offense and defense, scoring a big goal early in this game that swings the momentum over to his team.

Tony Medeiros continues to produce from defense, scoring a goal to extend his goal scoring streak to three games.

Kevin Wilson returns from IR and scores his team's only goal.

Hitting the trifecta with a third straight head-to-head goalie matchup showcasing how good the goalies can be in this league when given team support, as Anthony Petrillo and Dale McIsaac matched save for save all game, as Anthony was very sharp in net, stopping 27 out of 28 shots faced, while Dale stopped 27 out of 30 shots faced. Well done both of them!
