Game Summary:

In a battle of the top two teams that lived up to the pre-game hype, this game featured a lot of momentum swings and had a playoff feel to it, as both teams showed up and left it all on the rink, in a tight close checking game.

Poo Bears roars back from a one goal deficit heading into the third period, scoring three unanswered goals and holds on extending their winning streak to six games, solidifying their hold of the top spot increasing it by four points. Right now, this is the team to beat!

Tommy Guns faces another "close tight checking low scoring" test as they hold a one-goal lead after two periods, but give up two in close goals early in the third period in a minute and a half to their opponent and can't match the timely scoring.

Leo Trombley, quiet on offense this season, breaks out scoring 2-goals, after going seven weeks without scoring a goal.

Rob Sheridan has his hands all over this game in leading the offense, scoring a huge goal in the third period helping his team grab the lead again, while setting up 2-goals. Rob may not be putting up the numbers on offense as in seasons past, but he is playing a key part in his team's balanced offensive attack and depth scoring. True leaders lead by example, but, the great leaders lead by their all-around play which may not show up on the game sheet!

Tom Gallagher continues to be the engine driving the offense for his team as he factors in on every goal his team scores with 1-goal and 2-assists.

Naz continues to do his job in the background, doing all the little things to add defensive depth to his team, and gets rewarded in this game by making some smart reads to set up two key goals in the third period. Hats off to one of the "lunch pail gang" players.
