Poo Bears

First Responders

Game Summary:

Team Timeout:

Poo Bears is on fire, winning their seventh straight game, and showing no signs of slowing down, as they maintain their two game lead atop the team standings. This team continues to win the close defensive games with a balanced scoring attack.

First Responders sees their winning streak halted at three games, after scoring the game's first goal, they give up three unanswered goals and score early in the third period to make this a close game until the very end. However, even with the loss First Responders jumps up into third place in the team standings.

Pedro Fontes continues to stay hot and produce consistently for his team, as the go to player, scoring another 2-goals, as he has scored two or more goals in seven of his eleven games played this season.

Rob Sheridan continues his playmaking mastery on the rink while coming up with timely goals, as he produces 1-goal and 1-assist, extending his point scoring streak to four games while producing 3-goals and 6-assists during that time.

Marty Makarewicz continues to impress as he sets up two key goals for his team, extending his point scoring streak to three games.

Mike O'Neill scores his team leading tenth goal of the season while extending his point scoring streak to four games.

Joe Carlton scores a goal to extend his lead as his team's defensive scoring leader.

Fill-in goalie Mike Viera is solid in net, returning from injury and getting the win, stopping 23 out of 25 shots faced.
