Game Summary:

Team Timeouts:

In a wild back and forth game that saw plenty of offense and scoring chances, the Revolution hold on with a late OT goal to secure their second straight win, to leapfrog up into second place overall in the team standings.

Cam-A-Lot, devastated all season long with multiple injuries, appear to have finally found their consistency and be competitive for the stretch run, earning three points in their last three games. If this team can find balanced depth scoring and convert their scoring opportunities, they could be a dangerous opponent come playoff time.

Dan Poirier Sr continues to find his all-around game, especially scoring goals, as he scores another 2-goals, while adding 1-assist, with 4-goals scored in his last two games. Looks like the Revolution has found their secret weapon on offense.

Jason Carrien has a statement game on offense, scoring the game winner in OT, while setting up two powerplay goals to start the third period and bring his team back from a one goal deficit entering the final period.

Derrick Power surprises everyone with a breakout performance on offense, scoring the first two goals of the game, BOTH ON BREAKAWAYS, as he breaks a ten game goal scoring drought. Well done Derrick!

Jim Barber returns to action from IR, and steps up his game on offense scoring 2-goals. His first points produced after a six game scoring drought (three of those games out on the IR list).
