Game Summary:

Capo-Zero might have found a way to turn their season around with a big win over the hot first place team, with a key contribution from an unexpected player, to extend their winning streak to two games. This marked the first time all season that they have had a full roster of players for a game, including getting a boost from a key defenseman back to active playing status. Questions still remain as to their star players still struggling to score goals.

Poo Bears sees their seven game winning streak come to a halt, as they struggle to find any offense in this game. This team is still the consensus favorite heading into the playoffs. Even with the loss, Poo Bears clinched the 1st playoff bye!

Kyle McCabe has a breakout performance to lead his team in scoring 2-goals (his first goals of the season), giving his team a big momentum boost for their struggling offense, as he has his running legs going this game. His scoring could have a huge impact on turning around his team's dormant offense.

Joe Conary scores the game winning goal in a key second period surge, to extend his goal scoring streak to three games.

Rob Sheridan scores his team's only goal to extend his goal scoring streak to three games and point scoring streak to four games

Goalie Dale McIsaac is a brick wall in net, stopping 24 of 25 shots faced, as he extends his goals against streak only allowing one goal against to two games.

Hats off to the team's four defensemen as they play solid all game and shut down the offense of their opponent.
