Tommy Guns

Game Summary:

In a "must win" game for Tommy Guns, missing their captain and leader, they storm back from a two goal deficit, halfway through the third period, to turn this game around, scoring four unanswered goals, stopping their three game losing streak. Has Tommy Guns righted that sinking ship to once again be a top contender? Time will tell.

Cam-A-Lot has this game won halfway through the third period until the defense makes too many obvious unforced errors in their own zone to hand their opponent some prime scoring chances that they don't miss. Not making any in game defensive adjustments in the third period was a hard lesson learned. Cam-A-Lot continues to improve during their last couple of games finding their team identity; they just need to clean up the defensive part of their game.

Mike Duggan steps up big time, leading his team's offense, scoring a hat trick as he breaks a three game goal scoring drought, while extending his led atop the leading scorers race.

Patrick Spencer finds his scoring touch in the third period, scoring 2-goals late in the third period to seal the win for his team, giving him three goals scored in his last two games.

Rookie Kevin Johnson shows off his scoring touch and finish, scoring 2-goals providing his team with that much needed offensive finish.

Gary Goodwin is a big factor in his team's offense, scoring 1-goal, hustling his way to set up two other goals.

Johnathan Caffarella plays another strong game on offense, as he makes a difference during his team's comeback in the third period, setting up three goals.
