Game Summary:

First Responders wins their second straight game to set up a showdown against Tommy Guns next week to determine the second seed playoff bye team and the third place playoff seed.

Capo-Zero sees their two game winning streak end, as they continue to have a lack of offense, and production from their top players. At stake next week is whether this team will finish as the 4th or 5th playoff seed.

Joe Carlton is the standout player on offense for his team, while playing solid defense, as he scores 2-goals, including the game winner. Joe's production on defense keeps him in the top three in scoring for defensemen.

Nick Doherty scores a key goal at the end of the first period, breaking a four game scoring drought.

John Carey, after an extended stay on IR, scores his first goal of the season and point since returning.
