Game Summary:

The Revolution gets back to their winning ways, stopping that two game losing streak with a complete blowout win over the top team heading into the playoffs on a very positive note, as they clinched the 5th playoff seed.

After winning seven straight games, Poo Bears has now lost two of its last three games heading into the playoffs as the 1st playoff seed, with a lackluster, no compete level, too many defensive zone turnovers embarrassment of a game. How will they respond after their bye week in the playoffs?

Manny Nunes finishes the season strong as his team's dominant player on offense leading the way with 1-goal and 3-assists, while finishing in 4th place in the leading scorers race.

J R Liwanag, continues to have an impressive season getting noticed for his scoring finally catching up to his hustle and forechecking talents, as he scores 2-goals.

Colleen O'Connell does it again, scoring her second straight goal after a 13 game drought. Told you the girl has game, as she finishes ahead of six other defensemen in the league, plus one forward (we won't mention any names ahem Rick Cassano).

Leo Trombley scores both goals for his lethargic team.
