Game Summary:

Poo Bears comes off their playoff bye week not looking like the same team that finished in first place overall, as they don't have their offense and attacking forechecking game going. After trailing 1-0 entering the third period, they finally wake up at the start of the third period, sparked by their second line pressuring the defense to cause a turnover, as they score three unanswered goals to book their place in the Finals.

Capo-Zero comes out strong with a relentless forechecking swarming game that pays off by scoring the game's first goal. However, as has plagued them at multiple times this season, they couldn't score that next goal to extend their lead, as their offense and production from their top scorers was non-existent in the playoffs.

Leo Trombley steps up his game on offense at the right time, sparking his team's momentum by scoring the tying goal, then adds a late insurance goal in the last minute to seal the win.

Rob Sheridan makes a big play late in this game scoring a Bobby Orresque goal off a scramble out front giving his team the lead, then sets up the insurance goal.

Pedro Fontes doesn't score a goal but his hustle sets up two goals as they take over the game with a flurry

Seth Ford plays his typical quiet under the radar game on defense, but his breakout passes ignites his team to get their offense going to change this game in the third period.

Kevin Wilson scores his team's only goal on a hustle play out front giving his team the early lead.
