Game Summary:

Azores Express gets back to their winning ways, as they jump out to a commanding four-goal lead, survive a furious comeback by their opponent, and cap off the win with a brilliant individual goal in overtime, to remain in first place.

Hammertime overcomes a four goal deficit early, scores the next four unanswered goals in a furious comeback, only to fall short at the end of overtime.

Only playing one defenseman in OT is a questionable strategy that impacts the outcome of this game.

George Medeiros plays a great game overall, scoring 1-goal while adding 2-assists. He takes advantage of two gassed forwards playing defense with a brilliant individual move in OT to go around the sliding defensive player and beats the goalie with ten seconds left to play.

Pedro Fontes breaks out on offense (must be the fluorescent sneakers) to factor in on four of his team's five goals with 1-goal and 3-assists.

Lee Nogier ignites the comeback for his team in the second period, scoring 1-goal and setting up two others.

Rob Sheridan scores a big game tying goal in the third period to temporarily complete his team's comeback, while setting up another goal.

Johnathan Cafarella finally records his first goal and point of the season centering the second line, sparking optimism that his team can count on their second line to produce and not be a "top heavy" team.

Jim Clarke scores his first goal across both last and this season games to spark the momentum for his team, getting them back into this game.
