Game Summary:

Dominions wins their second game in a row in another rout, showcasing their team speed and relentless forechecking, as they have bounced back in a big way from their recent slide. The sleeping bear may have just woken up which is bad news for the rest of the league.

Barney & Friends looks lethargic and their goalie and defense struggle, as they give up four unanswered goals in the first period and never recover. This team just cannot string together a couple of games for a winning streak, unable to maintain consistency.

Dominic Defrancisco leads the attack, making a big jump to the top of the leading scorers race with 1-goal and 4-assists.

Manny Nunes has a breakout playmaker game, scoring his first goal in four games, while setting up another three goals (his second straight three assist game).

Rich Pelletier continues to heat up for his team after a slow start, as he scores a hat trick, now with 6-goals in his last two games.

Chris Torres continues to impact the offense from defense and is starting to run away with the defensemen leading scoring race, setting up three goals (putting up seven points in his last two games).

Ray Dow joins the scoring frenzy setting up three goals.
