Game Summary:

Team Timeout:

Phoenix Rising continues their winning ways, posting their second consecutive win and fourth in their last five games, as they remain one of the hottest teams and continue to climb up the standings into second place.

M*A*S*H gives up three straight goals to start this game, but never recover trying to get close in this game.

Matty Iannello has a breakout game on goal scoring after only scoring one goal all season to pace his team's offense, scoring 2-goals and adding an assist.

Nick Romano's long distance shot from the Walmart parking lot fools the goalie and sparks his team breaking this game open, while also adding an assist.

Garvin Chan continues his consistent impactful season for his team, scoring a goal while assisting on two of the first three goals his team scores.

Joe Conary leads his team's offense with 1-goal and 1-assist.

Mark Stickney has his second straight productive game after a quiet start this season, with 1-goal and 1-assist, as he makes a run to get back into his Pink Shirt Challenge.
