Team Timeout:

After letting a game they had control of for most of the game but eventually lost on Saturday in overtime, Dominions came out with a vengeance determined to take the lead and never look back as they avenged their previous loss to their opponent. With the win, Dominions jumped back into a tie for first place overall in the standings.

Azores Express after starting the season with a stingy defensive game, and going 5-2 in their first seven games, has gotten loose on defense giving up more goals and played sub-500 hockey their last three games to fall into a tie for first place.

John Hines returned to action and had a monster game both on offense and defense, scoring 2-goals while adding an assist.

Rick Pelletier extends his scoring streak to four games, with 2-goals (including one big gift goal from the opposing defense) that broke this game wide open, and has now scored nine goals in his last four games.

Rick Cassano played some inspired motivated hockey in setting up four of his teams goals.

Dom Defrancisco had another multipoint game by scoring 2-goals and adding 1-assist, to retake the scorer's race lead.

Dave Costa scored his team's only goal.
