Game Summary:

Barney & Friends play their second consecutive solid team game, as they extend their winning streak to two games, grinding out a close win with a key goal scored late in the game.

Hammertime sees their two game winning streak come to a halt, as they play shorthanded but still compete right to the end, as they go down by two goals early in this game and can't score that crucial tying goal.

Mike Duggan has a big impact on the outcome of this game, as he scores 2-goals, breaking a four game scoreless drought, and shows why he is the league's premier goal scorer with his quick release.

Anthony Petrillo's addition to the roster makes a difference, as he plays a big part in the game's first two goals, scoring a goal and setting up another.

Rob Sheridan continues to lead this team, scoring a timely heads up "read the play" in front of him goal to get his team back in this game late, moving around multiple defenders while sniping a tough angle shot close to the goal line past the goalie. In the process, Rob extends his goal scoring streak to 4-goals in his last three games.

Elder Lopes not only continues to be the quarterback leader for his team's defense, but also is factoring more and more into their offense, scoring another goal.

Both goalies, Dale McIsaac and Scott Rostko stand out, facing an equal number of quality shots and scoring chances, keeping both their teams in this game as they continue ramping up their play heading to the playoffs.
