Game Summary:

Team Timeout:

Dominions remains the team to beat, maintaining their place atop the team standings with a message game to the rest of the league "don't run against us at your own peril," as they extend their winning streak to two games, while routing their opponents in four of their last five games.

Phoenix Rising, after a recent impressive climb up the team standings, has cooled off with a two game losing streak as their potent offense has sputtered during that time.

Tony Medeiros, not having to worry about filling in on defense, shows off his scoring skills on offense, leading the way scoring 2-goals, breaking open a close game late in the second period.

Manny Nunes may not be scoring a lot of goals this season, but continues to display his playmaking skills to quietly drive this team's offense, with three assists, while setting up 13 goals in his last five games!

After a brief two game hiatus from factoring in on the game sheet, Chris Torres is back with 1-goal and 1-assist.

Rich Pelletier remains hot, scoring 1-goal while assisting on another, to extend his scoring streak to six games.

Oh yes perhaps overlooked due to the team in front of him, goalie Sean Roach records his league leading third shutout this season
