Game Summary:

Jake-O-Lanterns storms back in the second period from aN early two goal deficit, led by their second line. It's the first win in five games played against their opponent.

Drama Queens was the most consistent team all season long and suffers their first loss of the season against a team not call Olive Pits.

The second line of Jake-O-Lanterns takes over this game in the second period and simply dominates with their speed.

Angelo Deluca plays his best game in quite some time, at the right time, scoring a hat trick and adding an assist, to clinch the Playoff MVP award.

Gino Tammaro uses his speed to score 1-goal (short-handed) and adds 3-assists.

George Medeiros, as center, makes that second line go, with his constant hustle, scores a big goal late in the first period to get his team back in this game, and sets up three goals.

Tim Hickey gives his team the early lead on a power play.

Manny Nunes increases the early lead with a goal.

Goalie Jake Deehan turns his game and season around, hitting the trifecta of awards by winning the Best Goalie award, Bill Mayne award and winning a championship. Congrats Jake, well done!
