Game Summary:

In a game looking more like an NBA end of season "let's rest our superstars" game with each team missing 1/3 of their rosters rather than a game for 1st place, Trojan Horse breaks open a scoreless game with three goals in the third period to finish in first place. Jim Barber leads the scoring with 1-goal, 1-assist. Goalie Scott Rosato turns back all but one shot stopping everything thrown at him in periods one and two with some tremendous saves to give his team a chance. Cappy opens the scoring with a bomb from the point. Angelo Deluca, with both leading scorers not playing, can't finish and comes up short trying for the scoring title.
