Game Summary:

Fool's Gold wins a "must game" heading into their bye week, now must wait and see if they make the playoffs.

Trojan Horse playing short-handed makes a great comeback in the third period down three goals, but sees their two game winning streak come to an end.

Niko Vramis steps up his offense to score 2-goals to pace the offense for his team and break this game open.

Sergio Costa's huge goal in the third period (20 seconds after Trojan Horse gets within a goal) changes the momentum for his team and goes a long way towards this win.

Cappy plays the entire game on defense and does his part to keep his team in this game by scoring 2-goals.
