Azores Express

Phoenix Rising

Azores Express completes its redemption season by running the table in the playoffs, avenging its winter 2024 season Finals loss by holding on for the championship win!

Phoenix Rising's "storybook ending" for its legendary iconic player does not happen, as they have the lead halfway through the third period, but can't hold on.

Mike Luise, finds himself in the right place at the right time to gather in a rebound and score the game winning goal with less than two minutes to play, to secure the championship for his team.

Matty Iannello, doesn't have the storybook ending of another championship, but, he goes out into retirement in style, scoring both his team's goals in vintage Matty I fashion. Matty scores the game's first goal early in the third period, then dramatically ties the game with just over two minutes to play.

Gary Goodwin, scores the game's biggest goal with five minutes to play in the game, as he ties up this game, swinging the momentum with a sniper shot thirty feet out top corner.

Gino Tammamo, is consistent during the playoffs, as he finishes the playoffs with a three game multipoint scoring streak. with 1-goal and 1-assist. as he temporarily puts his team ahead one minute after Gary's goal.
